

RELAXED ROSE STORYBOARD

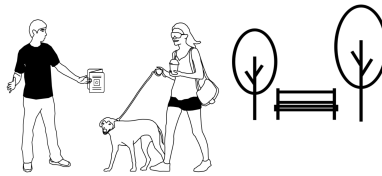

SCRIPT

1

ACTION

Rose started her day, as she usually does, with a morning walk with her dog Archie.

2

ACTION

Rose gets stopped by a young man, who is handing out his last flyer for his babysitting business.

3

ACTION

Although Rose does not have kids, she asks the young man if she can take his flyer and make copies to distribute to her co-workers who may be interested.

4

ACTION

Once Rose returned back home from her walk, she went to her office copier machine and put the flyer face down on the copier and closed the lid.

5

ACTION

She then pressed the "Copy" button, pressed "20" for 20 copies, and waited for all of the copies to print.

6

ACTION

Once she arrived at work, she gathered some of her co-workers and asked if they were in need of a new babysitter and distributed her freshly copied flyers.

7

ACTION

Rose's co-workers were so appreciative that she thought of them and made copies at home, and they were overjoyed and excited to try out the new babysitter!

SCRIPT

8

ACTION

In the end, many of the co-workers decided to use the babysitting service, and Rose was able to help with the use of her copier!
